

LE VAUDEVILLE

OFFRES COMMERCIALES
Summer 2014

LA PIÈCE QUI SE JOUE MIDI ET SOIR AU VAUDEVILLE ÉCHAPPE AUX ALÉAS DE LA BOURSE VOISINE.

With the stock exchange behind you, just walk across the Vaudeville terrace and you will be stepping into the Roaring Twenties. Admire the marble, the woodwork, the brass and the engraved glasses, and watch for the ghosts of centuries past lurking inside the vast mirrors. Indulge yourself with the Menu, which from the chef's specials to the seafood platters will delight your taste buds. Let the traditional French cuisine and the freshness of carefully selected products from daily deliveries charm all of your senses. Since the 19th century, the Vaudeville has built a reputation on its quality products and on the service it dispenses. The palate delights are worthy of those offered by a good old vaudeville...

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

THE BRASSERIE

Situated right in the heart of Paris, the Vaudeville has built its excellent reputation on the quality of its cuisine and service. People like to come here to share traditional French cuisine and, in fine summer weather, enjoy the terrace a mere stone's throw from the Paris Bourse.

The history of the brasserie is intrinsically linked to that of the popular theatre from which the Vaudeville got its name, before the theatre finally succumbed under the weight of the years, several fires and the public works commissioned by Baron Haussmann. It was on the stage of the Vaudeville Theatre that "The Lady of the Camellias" (La Dame aux Camélias) received its first grand accolades. And it was in the shadow of the flourishing theatre that the little café adjacent to the Paris Bourse and coach houses began to prosper and would one day become the eponymous brasserie. Sitting comfortably in the café, the famous French dramatist, Eugene Labiche, would have drafted hundreds of plays. When the great public works of Paris swallowed up the Vaudeville Theatre, the little café remained and during the Roaring Twenties went on to acquire its present dimensions and its Art Deco style.

LE WAUDEVILLE

GENERAL TERMS OF SALES

(For a minimum of 10 people)

RÉSERVATIONS

Group reservations must be made with the Groups Department. A reservation is only valid once it has been confirmed by the Groups Department.

RATES

The prices indicated are net, inclusive of tax and confidential. The prices are applicable to groups of at least 10 people and cannot be combined with another promotional offer, with the exception of the Esprit Brasserie loyalty scheme. In such cases, the customer must give their card number during the booking process to benefit from the 10% discount and the scoring of loyalty points. If the card number is not given during the booking process, the Esprit Brasserie discount and the scoring of loyalty points will not be applied. (The scoring of loyalty points cannot exceed 500 points). These prices are valid until December 31st 2014 (excluding special days as the 24th of December, 25th of December, 31st of December, 1st of January and 14th of February), providing that VAT remains at 10% (excluding alcohol) in the catering trade.

MENUS

The menu and dish selections must be provided prior to the group's arrival, no later than 72 hours before the date of the reservation. The menu selections must be identical for all diners. In the case of force majeure, the Groups Department reserves the right to modify the selected Menu: a similar or higher quality dish will be substituted. The wine option selected must also be provided at the same time as the menu choices.

HEADCOUNT

The definitive headcount must be confirmed no later than 72 hours before the group's arrival: this information shall be used to determine the final invoice.

BILLING AND PAIEMENT

Unless previously agreed, payment shall be made on the day of the event or prior to the group's arrival (pre-payment). We accept payment in cash, by bank card and by cheques which can be endorsed by a French bank (foreign cheques are not accepted). If the order totals more than €2,000, a deposit of 50% of the amount must be paid no later than five working days before the date of the booking. The amount billed is calculated based on the confirmed headcount: any reduction in headcount not conveyed to and confirmed by the Sales/Reservation Department at least 24 hours in advance shall not be taken into account when preparing the final invoice.

In the event that the commercial service is notified (by e-mail or fax) between 24 and 72 hours prior to the booking of a reduction greater than or equal to 10% between the reserved and actual headcounts, cancellation fees will be applied. These fees will amount to 50% of the difference between the reserved and actual headcounts, multiplied by the cost of the selected menu. E.g.: For a confirmed party of 40, only 36 diners are served for a difference of 4: cancellation fees equal to the menu cost for 2 people.

In the event that notice is given less than 24 hours prior to the booking, the bill will be calculated on the basis of the reserved headcount.

Except in the case of force majeure*, a full group cancellation must be communicated in writing (e-mail or fax) no later than 72 hours prior to the booking. In this case, the deposit will be forfeited to the Brasserie. Beyond this date, any cancellation that is not put in writing (e-mail or fax) will result in a cancellation fee for the entire booking, on the basis of the reserved headcount.

* The force majeure events referred to here are any events or measures put in place by public or administrative authorities rendering execution of the contract impossible, or inhibiting its normal execution..

PUNCTUALITY

Groups are required to honor the confirmed time of their reservation. The management staff reserves the right to turn away a group that does not honor the agreed times.

RESTRICTIONS

The customer is expressly reminded that the services and decorations are supplied exclusively by the Brasserie and it is strictly forbidden to bring in any items without the agreement of the commercial service.

LAW AND ORDER

The Brasserie has the right to refuse any behavior that it considers to be contrary to public order, morality, safety regulations and inherent quality standards.

The customer agrees that he/she and their guests will respect all appointed staff members and safety regulations laid down by law relating to the premises and materials made available by the Brasserie.

LIABILITY

Restaurants that host groups are not under any circumstances responsible for loss, theft or damage to customers' personal belongings. If the premises are harmed or damaged, Beaux-Arts may take legal action against those responsible to obtain damages.

APPLICABLE LAW AND DISPUTES

Business conducted with the Sales Office is governed by French law. In the event of dispute, the Trade Court of Nanterre shall have sole jurisdiction.
